Tetra Digita

Java Full Stack Developer (API)

Description

- Create single page applications using HTML5, Angular JS, JSON, jQuery and Java, based on requirements.
- Develop applications in Java/J2EE, REST web services, JPA.
- Develop applications and integrate using services such as APIs/RESTful APIs.
- Collaboratively work with functional and technical teams to integrate applications in cloud environment.
- Work in a fast-paced, agile environment consisting of a cross-functional team designing and implementing systems from the web-based user interface front-end through the backend.

Qualifications

- At least 5 years of software development experience.
- Strong experience with full stack development, including understanding UI frameworks and back end architecture interactions.
- At least 2 years of experience with spring framework development.
- Strong experience developing RESTful web services and Angular 2/4/6.
- Experience with agile development methodologies.
- AWS cloud-based development experience.

<< Back to Careers

Job Location
Multiple Location in, US \ Remote.

Date posted
June 29, 2020